Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 11-24 are allowed.

- 2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
- 3. As to claim 11, the prior arts of record do not anticipate or render obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art a liquid crystal display comprising various elements as claimed, more specifically a storage capacitor electrode extending from the storage capacitor line along the data line, a pixel electrode entirely covering a portion of the storage capacitance electrode and a common electrode having a first opening pattern overlapping the portion of the storage electrode entirely covered by the pixel electrode.
- 4. As to claim 15, the prior arts of record do not anticipate or render obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art a liquid crystal display comprising various elements as claimed, more specifically a storage capacitor line having a main portion and a branch portion extended from the main portion along a side of the pixel region, a pixel electrode insulated from the storage capacitor line and entirely covering a portion of the branch portion and a common electrode having an opening pattern overlapping the portion of the branch portion entirely covered by the pixel electrode.
- 5. As to claim 16, the prior arts of record do not anticipate or render obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art a liquid crystal display comprising various elements as claimed, more specifically a first storage electrode line formed on a first substrate and extended along a first side of the pixel region, a pixel electrode provided corresponding to the pixel region and entirely covering a portion of the first storage electrode and a
